Dear PG

While from the clinical perspective this email is to share about my desire to move on from the organization that I have called home for close to six transformative years now, at the core of this email is my gratitude towards you for being the person and the leader you are!

I have my deepest gratitude for the journey we have shared. From handling the HR agenda for the largest, diverse and complex businesses across ZEEL and leading the internal transformation, Culture and capabilities agenda, my journey at ZEEL has been one of my career best. The opportunity to reimagine and drive your vision forward through strategy and robust execution, has been an honour and a privilege. The organization's choice, helmed by you, to recognise my commitment by rewarding me with the responsibility of the CHRO position, is the one I will always have the deepest gratitude for.

My experience of deep collaboration and shared successes and failures, alongside my peers, will truly remain a story I will continue to tell. Each experience in this prestigious organization has helped my growth in ways more than one- both personally and professionally. I shall remain indebted forever.

I am completely committed to serving my entire notice period, as stipulated in my employment contract and ensure a methodical and seamless transition and handover to the new CHRO.

Thank you again, PG.

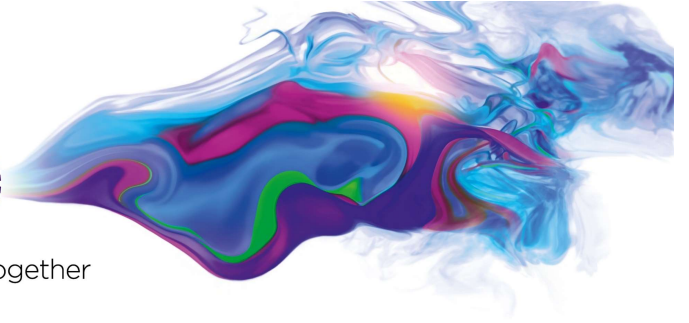

Yours sincerely,
Dheeraj Jaggi
Chief Human Resources Officer
